the members of the Progressive Circassian League (Al-Ussat al-Taquddumiyah al-Sharkasiyyah) in 'Amman are increasing their activities as a result of the current political situation and are holding frequent meetings at the home of a certain Nuri Bakir.

2. The following individuals are members of the Progressive Circassian League in 'Amman:

a. 'Izz-al-Din Bakir - Circassian born in 'Amman; thirty years of age. Bakir studied at al-Ahzar University in Cairo, where he changed his name to Nawras Bahir "for political reasons." In Egypt Bakir was a close friend of 'Abd-al-Rahman Sultanov of the Soviet Legation. Bakir was a teacher at Husayn College in 'Amman but was dismissed because of cruelty to students. He is now employed in the Statistics Department of the Ministry of Finance in 'Amman, is a close friend of 'Abd-al-Rahman Kurdi (an official in the Jordanian Ministry of Finance), and is one of the strongest supporters of the Soviet Union in 'Amman.

b. Munir 'Umar Balqar - born in 'Amman; twenty-seven years of age; has an intermediary education. He was formerly employed as a clerk in the Arab Legion and is now employed in the post office in 'Amman. He works actively for the Progressive Circassian League by propagandizing for it among Circassian youths.

c. Zuhayr Mufti - born in 'Amman; thirty-two years of age. He studied in Jordan and completed his education at the American University of Beirut, Lebanon, where he received a B.A. degree in political economy. Previously he was employed as a translator, class six, in the Jordanian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and at present is a Secretary at the Jordanian Legation in Washington, D.C. Mufti is a Communist and maintains contact with the Communist Party of the United States. He and his family are among the Circassian leaders in Jordan.
